

Decoration and Design in the State Dining Room

The walls in the State Dining Room at Ayers House Museum have been lavishly decorated by William J Williams. His hand painted, stencilled and gold leaf designs adorn the walls and ceiling in this magnificent room. Imagine you were asked to redesign the colour scheme in the State Dining Room how would you go about doing that?

