

Make a Lavender Bag

- low cost ✓
- green ✓
- quick ✓
- useful ✓

For eons people have used dried herbs to make their clothes smell nice and to protect them from moths. Now you can too.

You will need

- cotton cloth
- ribbon
- scissors
- dried herbs
- texta

Step 1

Cut cotton into a  Tip - trace a bowl

Step 2

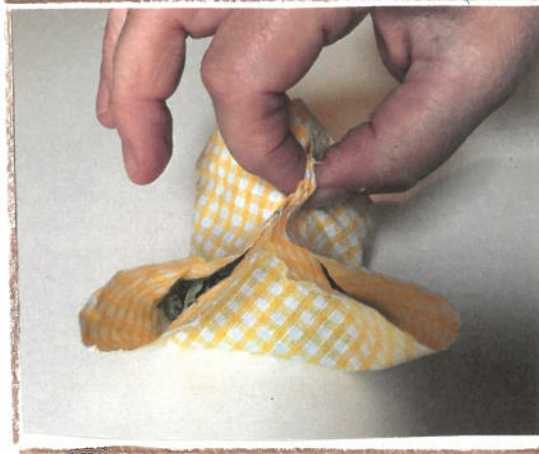

Pile herbs in the centre of the cotton

Step 3

Gather edges of cotton together

Step 4

Tie ribbon

Tip Harvest herbs like lavender, rosemary or lemon verbena. Hang them upside down and wait for them to dry.

Tip Put your lavender bag into your sock drawer.

Tip No need to buy new cotton - use old clean shirts or sheets.

Research Ideas

What do plants contain that keep insects away?

Why do moths like to eat clothes?

Design a menu for a moth dinner party!